And the beautiful inland sea of The Golfe du Morbihan

BRITTANY,

Full of Celtic history and mystery Tales of King Arthur, giants and korrigans.

Magical places abound.

“Brittany with its magic of green and gold.

The lakes and their multitude of protected spaces

Where myth and mystique are inseparable

Entwined with nature.

Heartlands of heather, of gorse and brook

Jagged crests and rocks, peat beds,

Trout streams, forests and woodlands,

Fenland, green and wooded valleys.

Here also is Brittany with its magic of blue.

The shoreline a lace-like ruff of rocky coasts,

Beaches and creeks, headlands and cliffs

Beaten by the ocean swell,

Rosaries of islands and islets,

Great banks of dunes and coastal lawns

With their fragile carpet of plan life

Exposed and then covered

By the sea every day”
